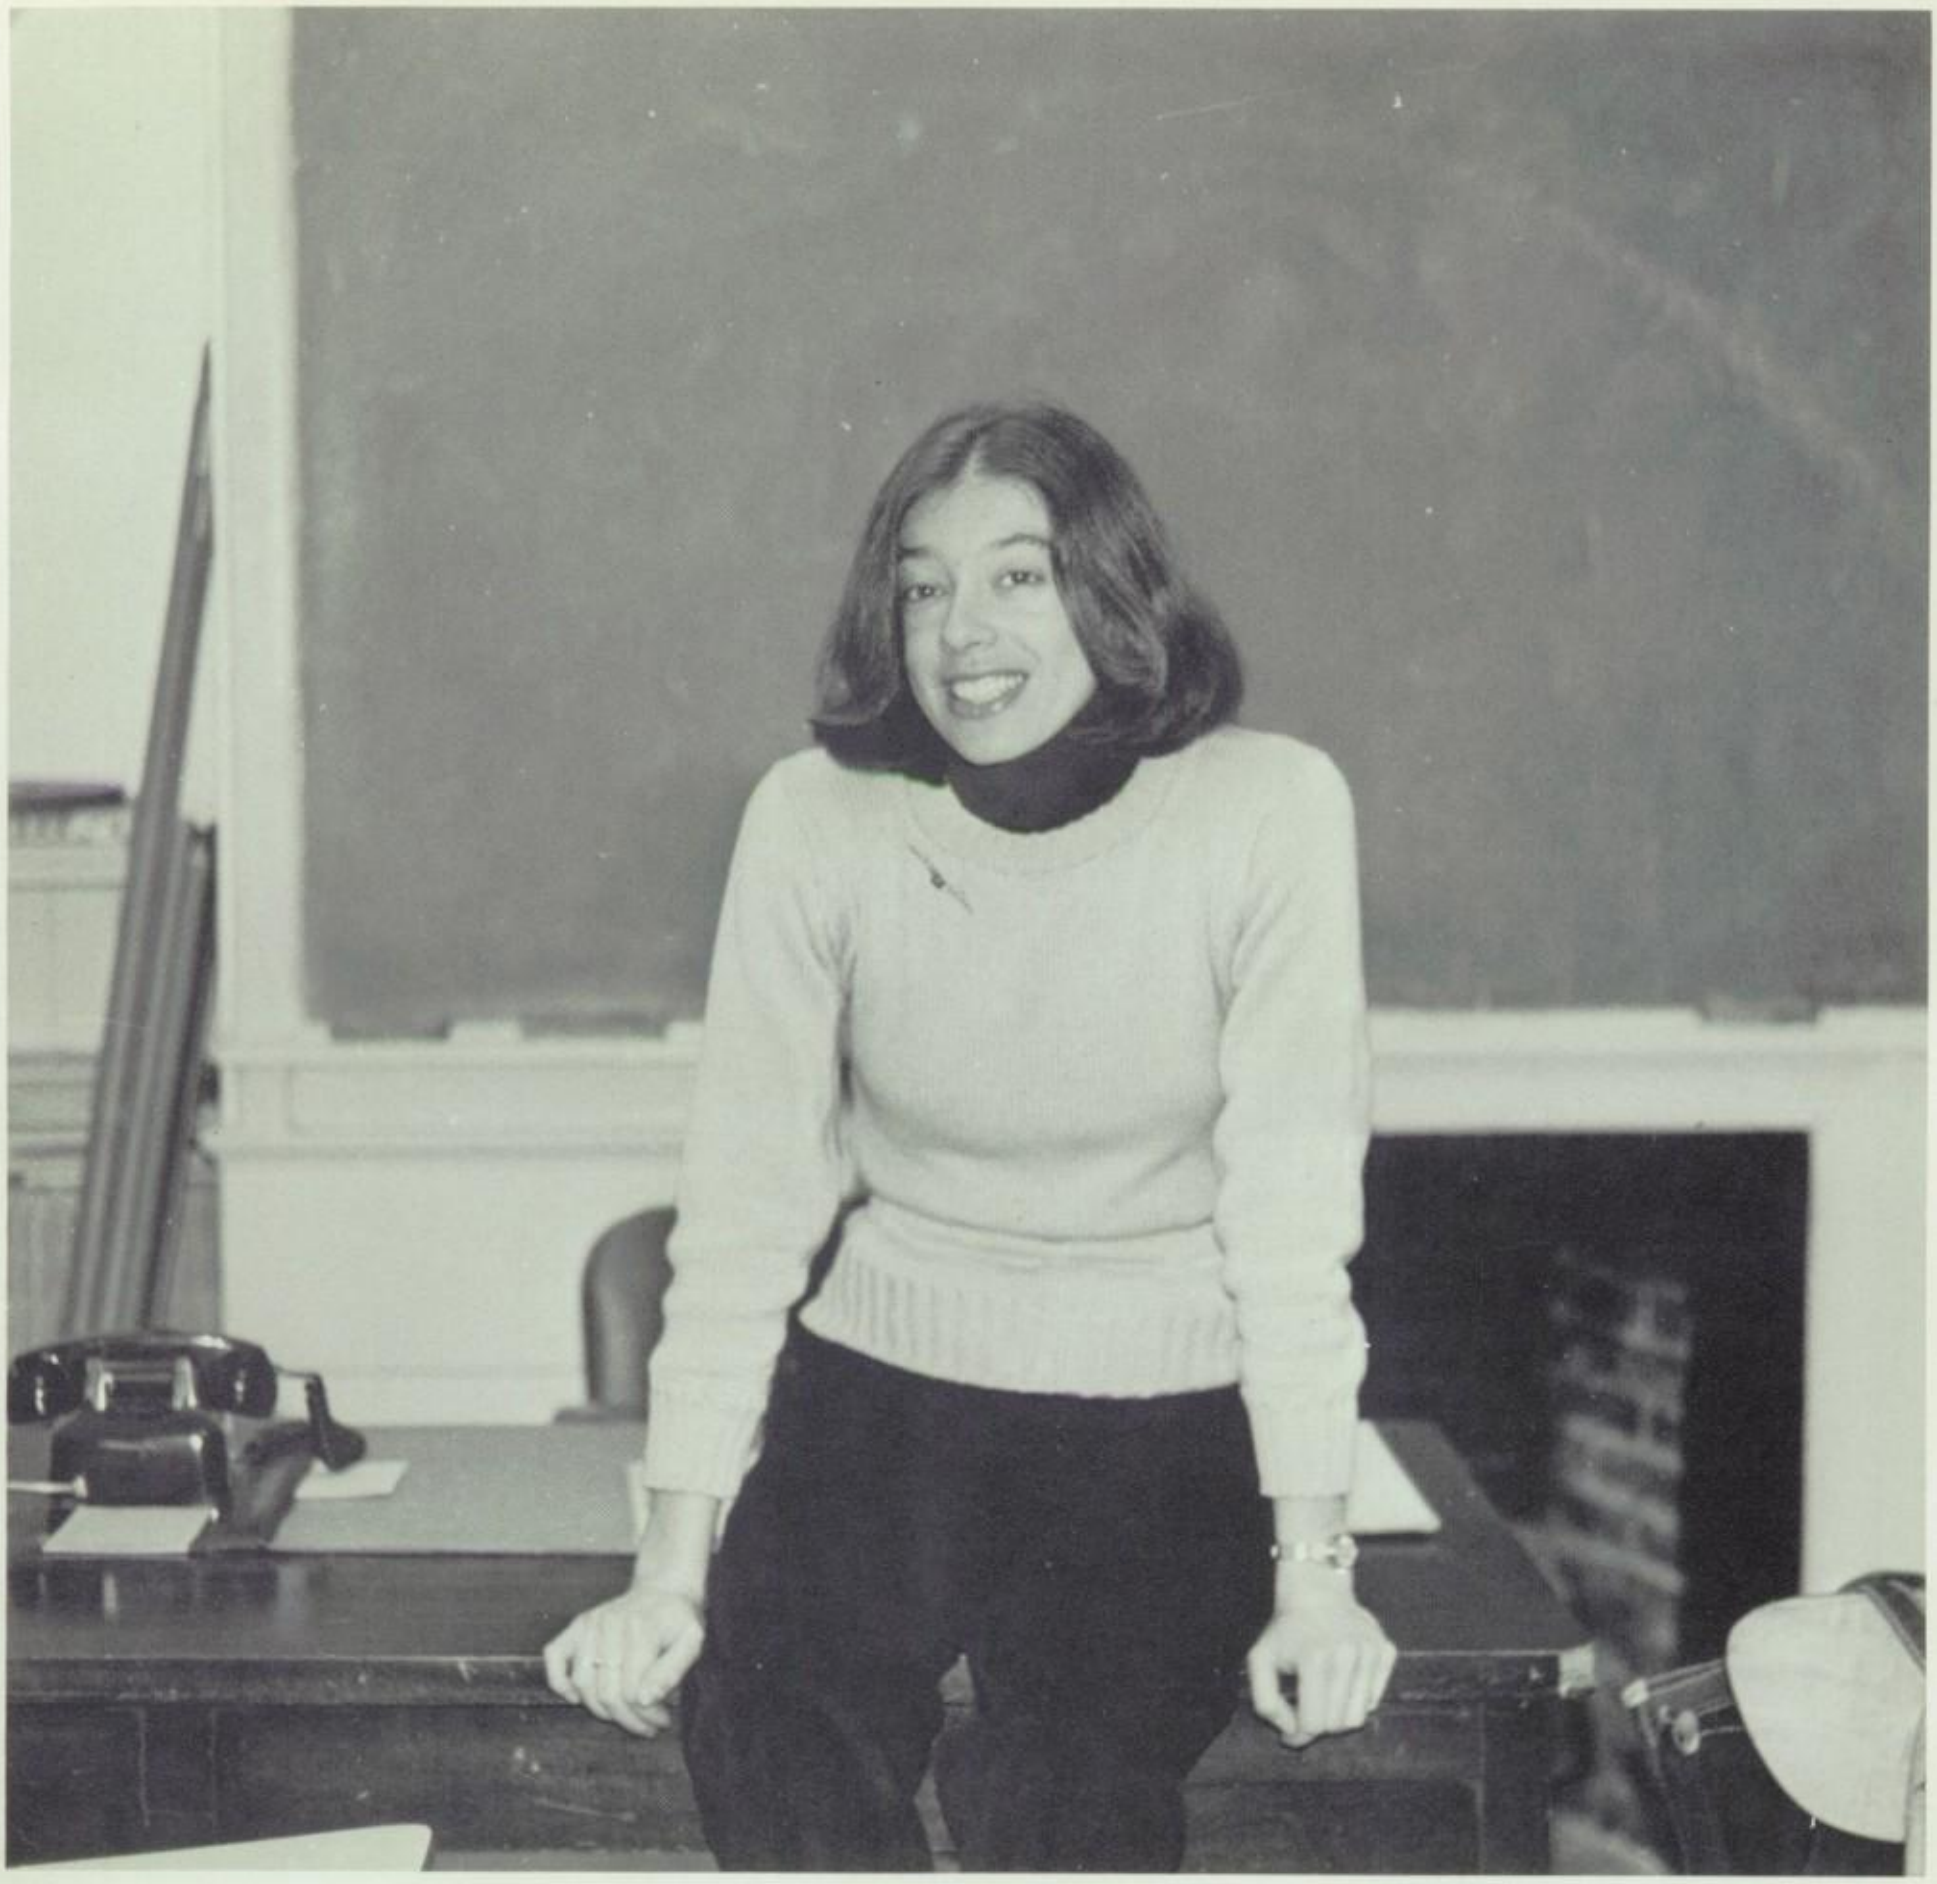
RETROSPECT 1981

KINGSWOOD-OXFORD SCHOOL

WEST HARTFORD, CT.

The Class of 1981 would like to thank Mr. Robert O'Brien for his twenty-five years of service and dedication to the Kingswood-Oxford community. During our years on the upper campus, we have come to appreciate his quiet strength and subtle humor. As a teacher, coach and friend, he has made a commitment in every aspect of student life. We recognize this as the most valuable quality a teacher can possess.



We, the Senior Class, would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to Dr. Anne Serow for her inspiration during this past year. Her sense of humor and ability to capture our interest have made our lives in and out of the classroom more enjoyable. She has made us realize our capacity to enjoy what we study and for this, we shall always be indebted to her.

MARGARET JESSIE O'ROURKE

I have to show the world
All that I wanna be
And all my abilities
There's so much more to me.
Somehow I'll have to make them
Just understand
That I've got it well in hand
And, oh, How I have planned.
The time has come for me
To break out of the shell
And I just have to shout
That I am comin' out.
— Diana Ross

From the Book of I. Chong

Don't Stop

If you wake up and don't want to smile,
If it takes just a little while,
Open your eyes and look at the day,
You'll see things in a different way.

Don't stop, thinking about tomorrow
Don't stop, it'll soon be here,
It'll be, better than before,
Yesterday's gone, yesterday's gone.

Why not think about times to come,
And not about the things that you've done,
If your life was bad to you,
Just think what tomorrow will do.

Don't stop thinking about tomorrow,
Don't stop it'll soon be here.
It'll be, better than before,
Yesterday's gone, yesterday's gone.

All I want is to see you smile,
If it takes just a little while,
I know you don't believe that it's true,
I never meant any harm to you.

Don't stop, thinking about tomorrow,
Don't stop, it'll soon be here,
It'll be, better than before,
Yesterday's gone, yesterday's gone.

Don't you look back,
Don't you look back.

The time is approaching when we must finally say our good-byes, We'll go our separate ways with sad expressions and lonesome sighs, But who knows, someday might come when we will cross these paths again,
The time is drawing near, but this is not the end Because the times we've shared will last forever
So for this moment,
we'll just say so long,
For someday friends,
we shall meet again.

Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow,
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day,
To the last syllable of recorded time:
And all our yesterdays, have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle, Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player,
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage,
And then is heard no more.
It is a tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury signifying nothing.
— Shakespeare

The Ocean is the Ultimate Solution
Frank Zappa

The world was young, the mountains green,
No stain yet on the moon was seen,
No words were laid on stream or stone,
When Durin woke and walked alone.
He named the nameless hills and dells;
He drank from yet untasted wells;
He stooped and looked in Mirrormere, and saw a crown of stars appear,
As gems upon a silver thread,
Above the shadow of his head.

A king he was on carven throne
In many-pillared halls of stone with golden roof and silver floor
And runes of power upon the door.
The light of sun and star and moon
In shining lamps of crystal hewn
Undimmed by cloud or shade of night
There shone forever fair and bright.

There hammer on the anvil smoke,
There chisel dove, and graver wrote;
There forged was blade, and bound was hilt;
The delver mined, the mason built.
There beryl, pearl, and opal pale,
And metal wrought like fishes' mail,
Buckler and corset, axe and sword,
And shining spears were laid in hoard.

The world is grey, the mountains old
The forge's fire is ashen-cold;
No harp is wrung, no hammer falls;
The darkness dwells in Durin's halls;
The shadow lies upon his tomb
In Moria, in Khazad-dum.
But still the sunken stars appear
In dark and windless Mirrormere;
There lies his crown in water deep,
Till Durin wakes again from sleep.

Many have marked the speed with which Muad'Dib learned the necessities of Arrakis. The Bene Gessirit, of course, know the basis of this speed. For the others, we can say that Muad'Dib learned rapidly because his first training was in how to learn. And the first lesson of all was the basic trust that he could learn. It is shocking to find how many people do not believe they can learn, and how many more believe learning to be difficult, Muad'Dib knew that every experience carries its lesson.

— from the history of Muad'Dib by the Princess Irulan.

There is unrest in the forest
There is trouble with the trees
For the maples want more sunlight
And the oaks ignore the pleas

The trouble with the maples
(And they're quite convinced they're right)
They say the oaks are just too lofty
And they grab up all the light
But the oaks can't help their feelings
If they like the way they are made
And they wonder why the Maples
Can't be happy in their shade
There is trouble in the forest
And the creatures all have fled
As the Maples scream "Oppression"!
And the Oaks, shake their heads
So the Maples formed a Union
And demanded equal rights
The Oaks are just too greedy
We will make them give us light"
Now there's no more Oak oppression
For they passed a noble law
And the trees are all kept equal
By hatchet
Axe,
And saw . . .

Call her moonchild
Dancing in the shallow of a river
Lonely moonchild
Dreaming in the shadow of the willow.

Talking to the trees of the cobweb strange
Sleeping on the steps of a fountain, Waving silver wands to the night-birds song
Waiting for the sun on the mountain.

She's a moonchild
Gathering the flowers in a garden
Lovely moonchild
Drifting on the echoes of the hours.

Sailing on the wind in a milk white gown
Dropping circle stones on a sun dial Playing hide and seek with the ghosts of a dawn
Waiting for a smile from a sun child.

The passage of time
Any fool can do it
There ain't nothing to it Nobody knows how we got to
The top of the hill
But since we're on our way down we might as well enjoy the ride

Three passions, simple but overwhelmingly strong have governed my life: the longing for love, the search for knowledge, and unbearable pity for the suffering of mankind.

Bertrand Russell

We shall hear the angels, we shall see the whole sky all diamonds, we shall see how all earthly evils, all our sufferings are drowned in the mercy that will fill the whole world. And our life will grow peaceful, tender, sweet as a caress.

If you wake up and don't want to smile,
If it takes just a little while
Open your eyes and look at the day
You'll see things in a different way

Don't stop thinking about tomorrow,
Don't stop, it'll soon be here
It'll be better than before
Yesterday's gone, Yesterday's gone

Why not think about times to come
And not about the things that you've done
If your life was bad to you
Just think what tomorrow will do.

Don't stop thinking about tomorrow,
Don't stop, it'll soon be here
It'll be better than before
Yesterday's gone, yesterday's gone . . .

LONG MAY YOU RUN. DAVE LINE

For everything and Everybody there is a beginning, a time to learn, a time to experience, and sadly a time that ends.

Jimi Hendrix

Does anybody know what time it is? Does anyone really care?

Chicago

Now I'm loosing touch with reality and I'm almost out of blow. Such a fine line I hate to see it go.

Jackson Browne

If the river were a whiskey and I were a Duck I's swim to the bottom and never come up, how long must I hesitate.

Hot Tune

It's time to stop, hey, what that sound? Everybody look what's going' down.

Buffalo Springfield

I don't like money 'cause money don't buy me love.

Rolling Stones

And He thought He'd have a big old party and He'd call it planet Earth, do not worry about tomorrow, you'll know about it when it comes.

Grateful Dead

What do you do when you're young enough to rebuild but old enough to repaint.

Neil Young

Could you tell a wise man by the way he speaks or spells? is this more improtant than the stories that he tells? . . . then mister you're better man than I.

Yardbirds

It ain't no sin to be glad you're alive
I wanna find one face, that ain't looking through me.

You may have laughed at me and you may still be.
You should not have because you're future boss might be me.
You might be laughing at a hole in my back.
You're forgiven' 'cause laughter's all I want to recollect.

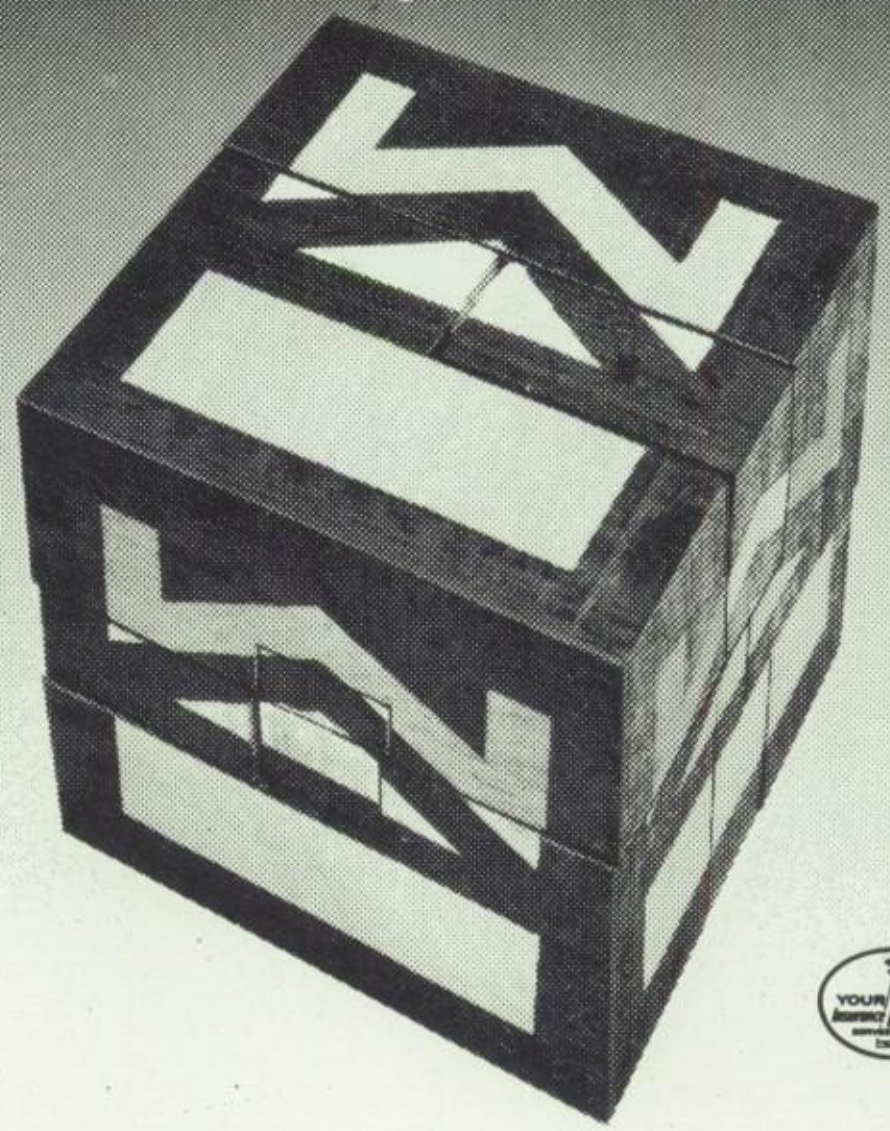
In 50 years, there hasn't been an insurance problem we couldn't solve.

Can we solve one for you?



Buying insurance is like trying to assemble a puzzle. It may take a lot of trial and error before you've got it right. And if pieces are missing...well, you're in trouble.

At the Arthur A. Watson Insurance Agency, we have a phrase... Watson Willingness...that sums up our method of solving insurance problems: Experience. Team work. Dedication. Professionalism. We've been putting the pieces of the insurance puzzle together this way for companies like yours since 1929. And we've made a lot of people happy in doing so.

If you'd like to know more about the Arthur A. Watson Insurance Agency, call us at 563-8111. Let us solve one for you.

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not; it is the first lesson that ought to be learned; and however early a man's training begins, it is probably the last lesson that he learns thoroughly.
